SAY—to say what good respect I King John, iii. 3 thou hast no cause to say so yet well, I'll not say what I intend I have heard you say, that we ay, the king will not say, no I have to say with you give me the iron, I say which as they say (rep.) by Bushy what says the world to your whereon, he says, I shall yield stand back, I say; by heaven, I think did not the prophet say, that he dully says, he'll not lay they say king John, sore sick
 I say again, if Lewis do win naught at all to say: first, Richard II. i. 1 besides I say, and will (rep.) our doctors say, this is no time what shall I say? to safeguard and the king's, say who thou art when some of you should say, I was go say, I say, as he forth by Bushy and say, what store of parting O but, they say, the tongues he, that no more must say right, you say true; as Hereford's what says he now? I say, nothing (God forbid, I say true) but I dare not say how near cousin, I would say; pray, pardon me reply to aught you say which they say, I shall say by Bushy uncle, you say, the queen is at how can you say to me, I am a king?
 say, Scroop, where lies your uncle hath but a heavier tale to say what say you now? what say you?
 to say, king Richard: alack Northumberland, say, thus the king what says king Bolingbroke?
 then I must not say, no why dost thou say king Richard yet, what I say, is true I heard you say—is not my whilst I say, he lies, and lies, and lies I heard the banish'd Norfolk say the king! will no man say, amen?
 king Henry, unkinged Richard says that again; the say of my
 the rest let sorrow say let me see it, I say, as I reason for there, they say (rep.) nay, do not say—stand up in French, king; say, pardonnez moy as who should say—I would, thou wert that my heart should say the devil, that told me, I did well, says majesty, I should say, for grace, Henry IV. i. 2 and let men say, we be men of says monsieur Remorse? what says were, as he says, say king Richard therefore, I say—peace cousin, say no you say true: why, what a candy happy man be his dole, say I say you so? say you so? I say unto what says to you say king Richard a plague of all cowards, I say and then say, it was in fight?
 he says, he comes from your father but, to say, I know more harm
 I have much to say in the behalf
 I say, the earth did shake when (rep.) who shall say me nay?
 would say, where? which is Bolingbroke?
 and what say you to this? Henry like a dog, it would say so and I said, I heard your grace say so our purposes; what say you to it?
 and the shirt, to say the truth why say you so, that be not for to-night, say I. Come, come this is not well: what say you to't?
 that friendship: say thy prayers deliver what you will, I'll say 'tis so I'll follow as they say, for reward what shall I say you are? Henry IV. i. 1 say, Morton, didst thou come from this thou wouldst say, your son did thus yet for all this, say not that Percy's if he be slain, say, the tongue which says the dead is not alive yet did you say,—go forth what says the doctor to my water?
 and yet he will not stick to say why sir, did I say you were if you say I am any other than I heard say, your lordship was sick for you hear not what I say to you if I did say of wax, my growth if you will needs say, I am lord marshal, what say you to it?
 and she says, up and down the town court say, and say nothing, he is virtuous I say to you, I desire deliverance but the midwives say, this is the the worst that they can say of me is but they say, there is some of how comes that? says he which is as much to say, as they are one can say, what's this?
 as they say, the emptier vessel neighbour Quickly, says he, receive I am the worse, when one says, swagger hold look on me, say I (rep.) they say, Poina has a good wit what says the almanack to that?
 what says your grace? His grace says say, the bishop and Northumberland
 I dare say, my cousin William is I may say to you, we know where uncle, what shall we say to this law?

 I'll say, I am duke Humphrey's and say, I wronged the duke well, my lord, to say so much. I say as who should say, I'll be even my lord of Suffolk, say as you think say but the word, and I will be say, you consent, and censure well say, he be taken, racked will make him say, I moved him (rep.) say we intend to try his grace to-day forbear, I say; their touch affrights did seem to say, seek not say, if thou darrest, proud lord with reverence may I say and say—it was thy mother they say, by him the good duke (rep.) no more, I say; if thou dost well, I say; it was never merry as much to say, says he, let even some say, the bee stings; but I say away with him, I say; hang him but, I say 'tis true; the elder well have the lord Say's head lord Say, Jack Cade's head here's the lord Say, which sold ah, thou say, thou serge, say take him you of Kent? Nothing as who should say, I'll be even what say away, I say, and strike what say ye, countrymen? will ye relent his cap, and say, God save his majesty!
 to say, if that the bastard boys say, what new news with thee?
 his sons, he says, shall give their

SAY—I say, come forth and fight Henry VI. v. 2 what says lord Warwick? v. 3 and say, not what to say Henry VI. i. 1 say, alas, it was a piteous deed!
 say how he died, for I will hear it all and dukedom, throne and kingdom say if for the last, say—Ay, and to it hereafter say unto his child, right say, Henry, shall I have my right which Warwick says is right nor hears us what we say for wise men say, it is the wisest and says, her Henry is a piteous deed!
 say, what art thou, that talk'st of wilt say, ay, to my request (rep.) say, that king Edward take and so I say, I'll cut the causes well, say there is no kingdom to why, say, fair queen, whences springs myself have often heard him say I hear, yet say not much she could say little less I say not, slaughter him and says—that once more I shall ay, say you so?
 say, Somerville, what says my say Warwick was our anchor and the rough wind say that say, you can swim; alas what I should say, my tears gainsay away, I say; I charge ye, bear her my lord, I should say that and say, I sent thee thither
 I have often heard my mother say to say the truth, so Judas kissed about a prophecy, which says, that, Richard III. i. 1 say, a wizard says, a wizard told him any thing we say (rep.)
 we say, that Shore's wife
 how say you, sir?
 say, I slew them not why then [Cot. Kat.—then say] they say then, my peace is made prayer will scarcely say amen
 doth she say, my lord of Buckingham?
 and say, poor Margaret was but say, 'twas done once, say (rep.)
 the fee, and tell him what I say then say at once, what is it thou therefore I say, with noble (rep.) they say, my son of York but say, my lord, it were not registered so young, they say, do ne'er live long what say you, uncle? I say, without I must not say so you'll say a beggar, nay so it should seem by that says he besides, he says, there are two and tell him what you say pray God, I say, I prove a needless I say, my lord, they have deserved yet who so hold, but they see it not?
 how now? what say the citizens?
 are mum, say not a word as I can say nay to thee for say says your lord (rep.) God defend his grace should say, I say you say, that Edward (rep.) say it. In saying so, you shall but say er men can say,—God save the queen!
 who art thou, I say, I looked on Richard's face say on, my loving lord (rep.) say, have I thy consent, that say, it is done, and I will love what says your highness to my but where, to say the truth, it is that I may live to say, the dog kneels, and says—God save the queen?
 strike, I say;—either be patient
 I say amen to her, Stay, madam to save her life, I'll say, I will which, say to her, did drain the purple what where I best to say?
 or shall I say, her uncle?
 to arm her, leave me, I say what shall I say more than he what says lord Stanley? will he say, amen, to all (rep.) can be merry then, I'll say, Henry VIII. (prologue) men might say, till this time I say again, there is no English soul say not, treasonous. To the king I'll say't they say, they are deceived by you let me say, 'tis but the fate of place that oft, says he, hath seen to me canst thou say further? I say say, lord Chamberlain, they have what say they? such a one hear what I say, and then go home but must needs say, to me how far and when you would say something who's there, I say? how dare you they will not stick to say, you which, to the king, are blessings I'll to the king, and say, spoke with say, are you not stronger than you were?
 therefore I say again, I utterly abhor your speaking, and to say so no more let's to say, meant to rectify be pleased yourself to say how far break up the court: I say, set on they will me say so, madam
 but say, I warned ye; take heed I'll dare say, without vain-glory a kind of good deed, to say well say, withal, if you are bound (rep.) say, I taught thee, say, Wolsey their coronets say so; these are stars a man living could say, this is my wife if the presence he would say untruths

I see, as in a map, the end of all i. 2
O then, I see, you'll part i. 2 where, he shall see, the boar will use i. 2 before I'll see the crown so foul i. 2 but yet, you see, how soon the day i. 2
I am glad to see your honour i. 2
I will not dine until I see the same i. 2 things done well, and with a care i. 2 things done without example i. 2 things won are done—Joy's soul lies i. 2 men prize the thing ungained more i. 2 why, then, the thing of courage i. 3 each thing meets in mere i. 3 then every thing includes i. 3 of things to come at large i. 3 thou thing of no bowels, thou! ii. 1 to guard a thing not ours ii. 2

 but I can tell you one thing, my lord ii. 2 I understand how all things go ii. 2 believe't, that we'll do anything for gold iv. 3 what things in the world canst iv. 3 but men, men are the things themselves iv. 3 more things like men? eat iv. 3 to hear, and answer such high things i. 2 could be moved to smile at any thing i. 2 or said any thing amiss, he desired i. 2 did Cicero say any thing? i. 2 shakes like a thing unfirm? i. 3 saw you anything more wonderful? i. 3 they are portentous things upon the i. 3 construe things after their fashion rep. i. 3 why all these things change, from i. 3 so vile a thing as Caesar? i. 3 no colour for the thing he is i. 3 between the acting of a dreadful thing i. 1 will never follow any thing that i. 1

 I will strive with things impossible ii. 1 the things that, threaten me ii. 1 besides the things that we have ii. 2 these things are beyond all use ii. 2 ah me, how weak a thing the heart ii. 4 to young Octavius of the state of things iii. 1 pluck down forms, windows, thy thing iii. 1 in this mood will give me any thing iii. 2 things unlikeliest charge my fantasy iii. 3 art thou any thing? art thou some god iv. 3 didst thou see any thing? iv. 3

THING—credit things that do Julius Caesar, v. 1 of men the things that are not v. 3 as, thou hast deconstructed every thing v. 3 how every thing is chanced v. 4 whom every thing becomes Antony & Cleopatra, i. 1 is't any thing, Alexas, almost i. 2 is't any, sir, that know things? i. 2 things, that are past are done i. 2 in each thing give him way i. 3 whom these things cannot blemish i. 4 last thing he did, dear queen i. 5 decays the thing we sue for i. 5
 I learn, you fake things ill i. 5 for vilest things become themselves ii. 2 pyramids are very goodly things ii. 2 what manner of thing is your crocodile? ii. 7 this creature's no such thing iii. 3
 I have one thing more to ask him iii. 3 but let determined things to destiny iii. 6 and things outward do draw iii. 11 for the things he speaks may concern iv. 9 the thing why thou hast seen it iv. 12 the breaking of so great a thing should v. 2 to do that thing that ends all v. 2 as things but done by chance v. 2 not petty things admitted v. 2 things of such civility as we v. 2 for things that others do v. 2 of things that merchants sold v. 2 glad at the thing they sow at Cymbeline, i. 1 if any thing too good to report i. 2 thou basest thing, avoid! i. 2 O, disloyal thing, thou shouldst repair i. 2 thou foolish thing! they were again i. 2 but had most pretty things to say i. 2 these things should grow i. 4 the other is not a thing for sale i. 5 we will have these things set down i. 5 depend on a thing that leads i. 6 it is a thing I made, which hath i. 6 hence doubting things to answer i. 7 more vexed at any thing in the earth ii. 1 a very excellent good-conceited thing ii. 1 with every thing that pretty bin ii. 3 (song) this is a thing we might from ii. 3 profit from all things we see ii. 3 in simple and low things, to prince it ii. 3 would be interpreted a thing perplexed ii. 4 a thing the most disdained of fortune ii. 4 its empty of civility, but grief ii. 4 a thing more made of malice ii. 5 believes it is a thing most precious ii. 5 I forgot to ask him one thing ii. 5 this is the second thing that I have ii. 5 if any thing that's civil, speak ii. 6 yet this imperverant thing loves ii. 6 and base things sirs base ii. 6 a thing more slavish did I ne'er ii. 6 from one bad thing to worse ii. 6 all solemn things should answer ii. 6 thou blessed thing! Jove knows ii. 6 what thing is it, that I never ii. 6 rather to wonder at the things you hear ii. 6 amongst his foes, at doing of pity! ii. 6 Iachimo, slight things to Italy ii. 6 such noble fury in so poor a thing ii. 6 this one thing only I will entreat ii. 6
 I see a thing bitter to me as death ii. 6 the same dead thing to live ii. 6 any thing that's due to all ii. 6 all the abhorred things of the earth ii. 6 was not thought by me a precious thing ii. 6
 O gods, I left out one thing which ii. 6
 I do every thing to do Titus Andronicus, i. 1 when every thing doth make a gleeful ii. 3 and one thing more, that womanhood ii. 3 once to behold the thing ii. 4 O wondrous thing! how ii. 4 thou shalt be end in these things ii. 4 now, what a thing it is to be an ass! ii. 4 I'll show thee wondrous things ii. 4 and hast a thing within thee, called ii. 4 have done a thousand dreadful things ii. 4 the thing which is flattered Pericles, i. 1 O sir, things must be as they may ii. 1 let me ask one thing. What do you ii. 5 who thought of such a thing? iii. (Gower) here is a thing too young for iii. 1 canst not do a thing if the world iv. 1 such a maidenhead were no cheap thing iv. 3 did you ever dream of such a thing? iv. 5 I'll do any thing now that is virtuous iv. 5 tell me one thing first, some (rep.) iv. 6 do any thing but this thou dost iv. 6 some such thing indeed I said v. 1 no needful thing omitted v. 3 commit a thing so monstrous Learn, i. 1 to do to her for any thing i. 4 I had rather be any kind of thing i. 4 else will take the thing she begs i. 5 no further with any thing you know i. 5 unless things be cut short i. 5 I have one thing, of a queasy question ii. 1 are in the poorest thing superfluous ii. 4
 I will do such things—what they are ii. 4 that things might change, or cease ii. 4 commend a dear thing to you ii. 4 things that love night, love not ii. 2 that can make vile things precious ii. 2 there is some strange thing toward ii. 3 to ponder on things would hurt me more ii. 3 that art the thing itself ii. 3 leaving free things, and happy shows ii. 6 allows itself to any thing ii. 7 lowest, and most dejected thing of fortune iv. 1 changed and self-covered thing iv. 2 these things shall his mind so venomously iv. 3 what thing was that which parted from iv. 6 that thing you speak of, I took it iv. 6 to say ay and no, to every thing I said! iv. 6

THING—they told me I was every thing. Learn, iv. 6 take upon us the mystery of things v. 3 great thing of us forgot! v. 3 and low, an excellent thing in woman v. 3 O any thing, of nothing first Romeo & Juliet, i. 1 can you read any thing you see? i. 2 and every thing in extreme i. 2 a tender thing. Is love a tender thing? i. 4 while they do dream things true i. 4 unwashed too, 'tis a foul thing i. 6 wish but for the thing I have ii. 2 why, is not this a lamentable thing ii. 2 thou wast never with me for any thing ii. 4 an' a' speak any thing against me ii. 4 there was an ill thing to be offered ii. 4 a little prating thing, O there's ii. 4 every unworthy thing, live here in iii. 3 things have fallen out, sir, so iii. 3 wilt undertake a thing like death iv. 1 things, that to hear them told iv. 1 all things shall be well, I warrant thee iv. 2 for the cook, sir iv. 2 but one thing to rejoice and solace in iv. 5 all things, that we ordained festival iv. 5 and all things change them iv. 5 and do the thing I bid thee do iv. 5 put this in any liquid thing you will v. 1 much I fear some ill unlucky thing v. 3 to have more talk of these sad things v. 3 what, has this thing appeared again? Hamlet, i. 1 if thou'st any good thing to be done i. 1 a guilty thing upon a fearful summons i. 1 in that, and all things, will we show i. 2 the most vulgar thing to sense i. 2 things rank and gross in nature i. 2 firm of trust, and word made true i. 4 being a thing immortal as itself? i. 4 there are more things in heaven and earth i. 5 as 'twere a thing a little soiled? I'll ii. 1 take from me any thing that? Will ii. 1 any thing, but to the purpose ii. 2 it appears no other thing to me ii. 2 fly at any thing we see ii. 2 unless things mortal move them not ii. 2 speaks things in doubt, that others ii. 2 as made the things more true ii. 2 I could accuse me of such things iii. 1 for any thing so overdone is from iii. 2 how unworthy a thing you make of me? iii. 2 ten thousand times more than I am iii. 2 the king is a thing—a thing, my lord? iv. 2 and every thing is bent for England iv. 3 for every thing is sealed and done iv. 3 live to say, this thing's to do iv. 3 speaks things in doubt, that others iv. 5 of itself after the thing it loves iv. 5 wisdom, all things else, you mainly iv. 5 or is it some abuse? and no such thing? iv. 7 can save the thing from death iv. 7 pry the crown, tell me one thing v. 2 impart a thing to you from my majesty v. 2 if your mind dislike any thing v. 2 things standing thus unknown v. 2 how these things come about, that one v. 4
 I, will answer any thing Othello, i. 1
 Rodrigo, of some such thing? i. 1
 I'll refer to all things of sense i. 2 the sooty bosom of such a thing as thou i. 2 of countenance, every thing to fall i. 2 these things to hear, would Desdemona i. 3 such things else of quality and respect i. 3 but I do beguile the thing I am i. 3 which I think to do, if I but trash i. 3 of his place, that does those things i. 3
 I remember a mass of things, but nothing i. 3 though other things grow fair i. 3 two things are to be done, my wife must i. 3 know the thing that but my lady i. 3 I'll intermingle every thing he does i. 3 for such things, in a false disloyal knave i. 3 whereinto foul things sometimes intrude i. 3 we see, in all things nature tends i. 3 to scan this thing no further i. 3 than keep a corner in the thing I love i. 3 a thing for you. A thing for me? (rep.) i. 3 can any thing be made of this? i. 4 men's natures wrangle with inferior things i. 4 hath he said any thing? He hath, my lord i. 4 and weep not; all things shall be well i. 4 an old thing 'twas, but it expressed i. 4 the world is a huge thing: 'tis a great price i. 4 marry, I would not do such a thing i. 4 why any thing: an honourable murder i. 4 THINK—I do not think thou canst Tempest, i. 2 my heart bleeds to think i. 2
 he thinks me now incapable i. 2
 I should sin to think but never shall i. 2
 I think, he will carry this island home i. 1
 I do think, a king; I would, not so! iii. 1 when I shall think, or Phœbus' steeds iv. 1 may I be bold to think these spirits? iv. 1 dost thou think so, spirit? v. 1
 I rather think you have not sought v. 1 scarce think their eyes do offices v. 1 if I did think, sir, I were well awake v. 1 and think of my Proteus, when Two Gentlemen of Verona, i. 1 think of my Proteus, when i. 1
 I think you'll hardly win her i. 1 of many good I think him best i. 2 I think him so, because I think him so i. 2 of all the rest, I think, best loves ye i. 2 and sent, I think, from Proteus i. 2
 I think, your lordship is not (rep.) i. 3
 I can hardly think you my master i. 3 you think too much of so much pains? i. 3
 I think, I shall do be i. 3 and, I think, no other treasure i. 4
 I think 'tis no unwelcome news i. 4 nay, sure I think, she holds i. 4 if you think so, then i. 7

THINK my patience more. Two Gentlemen of Verona, iii. 1 to think that she is by iii. 1
 I have the wit to think iii. 1 but 'thurio thinks so iii. 2 and also, I think, thou art not iii. 2 ay, but she'll think, that iii. 2
 she bids me think, how I iii. 2
 I think 'tis almost day iii. 2
 I think not I flatter, for I swear I do not iii. 3 but think upon my grief iii. 3
 I think verily he had been iii. 4 not so, I think she lives iii. 4 to think upon her woes iii. 4 she thinks that Proteus (rep.) iii. 4 when she did think my master iii. 4 to think upon thy words iii. 4
 I think, if I had such a tire iii. 4 and think thee worthy iii. 4 what think you of this page (rep.) iii. 4 and I think he hath appointed i. 1 surely, I think you have charms i. 2 I think myself in better plight i. 2 and what they think in their hearts i. 2

 I think you know him i. 2
 I think, if your husbands were dead i. 2
 I think, I shall drink in pipe-wine i. 2
 I think, my husband has some i. 3 and did her think what a man i. 3
 I think of that, a man of my kidney (rep.) i. 5
 I think you have killed i. 2
 by yea and no, I think the 'oman i. 2

 why I think so; I am not such i. 3 never in your life, I think i. 3 and I think, I have the back trick i. 3
 I did think, by the excellent i. 3
 I think not so, my lord i. 4 those wits, that think they have thee i. 5 do you think you of this for Malvolio? i. 5 one would think his mother's milk i. 5 but I think, it rather consists of i. 3

 I think it well, my lord i. 4 what should I think on't? i. 5
 I think I saw your wisdom i. 1 for him, I think not on him i. 1 what might you think? i. 1 that tyrannous heart can think? i. 1 that you do think, you are not i. 1
 I think so, I think the same i. 1 then think you right; I am not i. 1
 I think, oxen and wainpores cannot i. 2 and your store, I think, is not for i. 3 but did you think, the prince would ii. 1 and I think I told him true ii. 1

 I faith, lady, I think your blazon ii. 1
 I think, I told your lordship, a year ii. 2
 I cannot tell; I think not: I will not ii. 3
